

Private Homes Special Care Homes - Memory Care Rates
New Brunswick 2022 -2023

Type of Facility	Government Per Diem Rate to Operator	Per Dem effective October 1, 2022	Government Maximum Resident Rate	Resident subsidized	Co- pay Medication	Operator can charge open end rate	Per Diem increase effective January1 2023
Special Care Home Level 1-2	$94.64 April 1, 2022	$98.41	$77/day	Retains $135 per month	$500 Co pay prescription,	Rates set by the Operator	$108.41
Memory Care Home	$160.22 April 1, 2022	$166.53	$83/day	Retains $135 per month	$500 Co pay prescription	Rates set by the Operator	$148.13
Community Residence Level 4	$165.65	$172.08	$83.00/day	Retains $135 per month	$500 Co pay prescription	Rates set by the Operator	$182.08
Nursing Home	Government Claims average of about $250 per day		$113/day	Retains $108 per month	No co-pay only over counter medication required to pay.	Rates regulated by Government	Level 3

Notable: Home Care

As of April 1, 2022, the available rate for the Home Support Agencies is $22.49/hour with the minimum wage paid to staff being $15.50/hr. On October 1, 2022, the rate will increase to $23.69/hr., with the minimum wage paid to staff set at $16.50/hr.

New Brunswick is the only province where community support services for seniors fall under Department of Social Development.

There are currently 46 Home Support Agencies contracted with approximately 4,167 employees.
Home Support Association | New Brunswick \(nbhsa.ca\)